Mind Control, VR Room Sexual Abuse, and the Attack On Humanity

The information I am sharing today may come as a shock to you, but I feel that I should share this. If I can help just one person get a better understanding on what is happening with themselves and their energy I will know I have done my best to help.

As long as I can remember I have been experiencing weird sexual encounters in my dreams. My experiences range from straight up violent attacks coming from entities with red glowing eyes to more of a subtle suggestive approach toward sexual activity. I would also sometimes find myself willing to participate in such activities in the dream state. However, upon waking there would also be an energy of violation and guilt lingering. Sometimes the beings that would appear to me in my dream would look like a woman, but have male sex organs, or vice versa. Sometimes the entity would have both sex organs. No matter how they appeared I could always feel something was off by how their eyes would look at me. It freaked me out to be honest.

Earlier on in my journey before I was actually making a conscious effort to be more aware of my dreams by recording them daily I would possess a slight awareness of the sexual nature of the dreams soon after waking. When I would actually get out of bed to start my day my dreams were fleeting and forgotten for the most part. Things took a turn when I acted on the desire to find clarity as to what was really happening.

The first approach I took to solve this problem was lucid dreaming. I figured if I could maintain my awareness in the dream state I could consciously steer the dream in another direction by turning down the sexual advances and creating another dream scenario. I did TONS of research on lucid dreaming. I tried many exercises said to induce lucid dreaming. I tried binaural beats and affirmations. I applied numerous tips and approaches until one day - I did it. I recognized I was dreaming. I had been approached by someone in my dream that looked like a friend of my family in real life. I knew the form the entity was taking was not really the person I knew in real life. I knew I was dreaming.

The figure in my dream was trying to lead me to a remote location away from surrounding people to have sex with me. He wanted me to follow him down to the river side and lay with him on the river bank. I knew what that was going to lead to. I maintained my awareness in this moment. After all this is what I was waiting for. I politely declined any sexual interaction with the figure, and began to walk away. This made the figure in my dream extremely angry. I saw his eyes turn red, and his whole entire face burned with anger. I immediately felt fear and woke up. This kind of dream state scenario was repeatedly played out over and over again many different nights. Except some of the time I would be forced to comply with the demands of the figures in the dream appearing to me as people I know in real life. These dream experiences were very traumatic for me. It seemed like the harder I tried to resist the advances in my dreams- the more intense the abuse and attacks became. There were also several occasions where I felt like I had physically had sex in real life, but I hadn't. The signs and physical manifestations of sexual arousal would be evident. Even after dreaming of being brutally attacked and raped. That, of course, brought on more shame and guilt. I definitely had to comfort myself during those times, because my main thought was: Why does this keep happening? And Why don't I have any control over this? Is it my own energy, my own mind causing this? Or is an external force involved?

I knew I had to put forth more effort toward solving this problem. I changed my diet and tried to limit my exposure to stress. I also changed the level of screen time I engaged in before bed. I tried to take in account every practical matter possible. About three years ago I started keeping track of my dreams in great detail. I still record my dreams in a dream journal daily. It is the first thing I do before I even get out of bed each day. Doing this has led me down an even greater path to awareness than I ever thought was possible. I review my dream journals every full and new moon. I noticed several things that I dreamt had come true, some of which were dreams warning me of various things. I also wanted to try to see if there was any evidence other than the assaults in the dreams that would point to an explanation for these types of dreams. Maybe there were subconscious or unconscious issues I needed to work out for myself. Either way my goal was to understand what was going on. I did a Google search for this subject, and came across several different spiritual explanations as to what could be happening to me. I felt that since my logical approach to the situation wasn't working there had to be something more spiritual going on.

The first thing I came across was incubus/succubus spirits. The Christian community also commonly refers to these as water spirits, marine spirits, and spirit spouses (spirit husband/spirit wife). Since I was most familiar with Christianity I decided to take the Christian approach to this situation. I started listening to people like Kevin L.A. Ewing, who has put out tons of information on these types of spirits. He supports his perspective with biblical references. He also mentions that the human body is about 70% water, and that makes the human vessel a good interface point between the spirit realm and the natural. He claims that things like sin and sexual immorality are the open doors to these entities. He makes the point that anything that is manifested in the natural must exist in the spirit realm first. Which to me is the basic 'As above – So below'. Kevin goes on to say in almost every single one of his videos on this subject that covenants are the key to the manifestation of water spirits in ones life.

According to the Christian teachings when these entities offer you food, sex, gifts, or even a tiny kiss on the lips or the forehead and you accept anything from them you are in agreement with

...on the lips of the forehead, and you accept anything from them you are in agreement with them and their agenda. Any acknowledgement or interaction that involves agreement with these entities in your dream state supposedly forms a covenant or contract with these entities which in turn allows them to manifest their goals and agendas in your physical life from the spirit realm. Essentially the function and goal of these spirits are to lead the human astray into sin and away from their true divinely orchestrated life purpose. If you are interested in hearing more about what Kevin L.A. Ewing teaches here are some links to his YouTube channel, and some other videos and resources where I originally found this information. These are only a few of the resources I came across. I am sharing them so that you can understand the influences to my situation, so you can see the methods I applied, and the thought processes behind my approach at that time. I am not saying that Christianity the only true religion, etc. I am showing you a glimpse of my journey to freedom from this abuse. If you are suffering from the same abuse it is important that you take my experience with a grain of salt, and do what works for you. □

Underwater Kingdom of the Devil

When the fire prayers, repenting for all of my sins, remaining fervent in prayer, and fasting did not work I found Dan Duval's podcast on YouTube called 'Discovering the Truth with Dan Duval'. I was kind of taken aback by his methods and concepts on spiritual warfare. The way he related the bible to the realm of the spirit was unlike anything I had ever heard before. Dan Duval talks a lot about what the bible in Ephesians 6:12 calls "principalities, powers, and ruler's of darkness" and "spiritual wickedness in high places". Uzo Geoff Media and Dan Duval both mention "The Queen of the Coast" and "Leviathan" as holding rank in the dark hierarchy over the entire marine spirit kingdom. Leviathan being the fallen angel reigning over The Queen of the Coast and the rest of the kingdom. I made note of the references to this principality from both sources. But I still wasn't sure what that had to do with what was happening to me. It did not click in my brain that it is possible that there may be a very large underground operation in effect concealing sinister intentions and agendas until I had been steadily learning about this for about a year or so. Dan Duval makes it pretty clear that there are many different reasons why someone could be dreaming these things and have these attachments to spirit spouses. One of them being ancestral iniquity and/or trauma from any abuse during childhood (and satanic ritual abuse for some). Dan mentions spirit spouses several times in his set of interviews with KC in a YouTube playlist called "Story Time With KC and Dan Duval". I will leave a link to the playlist below. There are many instances in these interviews where KC refers to dreams that she has had about spirit spouses, then Dan Duval builds his warfare strategy around his observations. I came to the conclusion that everyone who is experiencing these encounters in their dreams may need a specific type of ministry based on their level of entanglement with government sponsored mind control agendas. You will understand exactly management with government sponsored mind control agendas. You will understand exactly what I mean by this if you watch these videos. There are 12 of them, so I know that is a lot for someone to take in. But if you are desperately searching for relief like I was it may be a good idea to watch them. These videos helped me not only see my situation compared to others from a Christian perspective, but I also still found some of this information useful when I began to see things through the lens of science- energy, frequency, and vibration.

Story Time With KC and Dan Duval

I thought that since the other prayers I had tried previously were unsuccessful, it might be better to try some of the prayer points and resources from Dan Duval's website www.bridemovement.com. Dan Duval had helped KC and many other guests from his podcast and ministry defeat the attacks from these spirits, or at least it appeared so. I used many of his prayers he has posted in the resources section of his website. I downloaded pdf versions of many of them, and I also purchased his books 'Prayers That Shake Heaven and Earth' and 'Advanced Prayers That Shake Heaven and Earth'. I was praying the Combo prayer(which can be found on his website), and the morning and evening prayer daily. I was hoping that the evening prayer would stop any attacks coming my way. I also prayed the 'Freedom From Synthetic Genetics' prayer from his first book. It slowed some of it down, but somehow the abuse, unwanted stimulation, and dreams of sexual nature would always creep back in. The physical phenomena in the 3D was not decreasing, but increasing also. My boyfriend and I have had a few instances where our bodies were stimulated sexually in the middle of a conversation about the very subject of the abuse when neither one of us were anywhere near the other, and wide awake. We had not been sleeping, going to sleep, or just waking up. It was just straight up weird and far more than coincidental. None of the things I tried were working to stop the abuse, and the visits in my dreams.

Until one day, I was searching through YouTube looking for more information on the general subject of mind control, and I found John Washington's YouTube channel. I had heard of the voodoo water spirits (also called the iwa). I understood the idea that there were many different explanations of underwater cities in scripture. I understood the whole idea of the illuminati and the connection mind control programming has to the agenda for the New World Order. I just wasn't so sure I understood how all of those things had anything to do with my personal situation.

This is the first video I saw from him.

John was talking about the shadow government in China (where he is) and in America (where I am), but he was mentioning things like scalar wave technology, DNA harvesting, and things I just had never heard of before. I actually had to watch several of his videos just to understand what the hell he was talking about. But I soon realized that John Washington was actually describing an intelligently designed system of sexual energy harvesting due to the use of specific quantum computers, artificial technology, and basically demons and other beings that are quantum entangled the victim from the use of the victims DNA. The DNA is used to that are quantum entangled the victim from the use of the victims DNA. The DNA is used to create clones. Sometimes these clones can be mixed with the DNA of other humans and/or include non-human DNA. According to John, the purpose of these clones is that they can be prostituted out in other universes or existences for a profit. John calls this VR Room (virtual reality room) or 'bathroom god' abuse. He says he believes the American and Chinese governments are involved in the use of the VR Room technology for the harvest and sale of human sexual energy. Dan Duval has mentioned in his several of his programs that many of the satanic ritual abuse survivors he coaches have had different (sometimes multiple) parts of their humanity interfaced with principalities and/or constellations, as well as different facets of their soul/spirit/humanity imprisoned in intergalactic prostitution rings. Both John Washington and Dan Duval's observations are relevant in my opinion. It all boils down to soul groups. There are the "positive" soul groups that are still connected to source, and support the organic and natural approach to existence by receiving their sustenance from God/Source. And then there are the "negative" soul groups that have chosen to separate themselves from God and choose to feed off the energy of other living things. Of course this is a way of labeling and is really from a duality consciousness perspective. However, there are groups and organizations out there involved in government that do things like harvest DNA, and allow agendas to be carried out within these organizations. If you are suffering from anything similar to what was happening to me, you may have unknowingly allowed the wrong individuals to get ahold of your DNA or your voice frequency which allowed a connection to your life force energy. If any VR clones were made you may be experiencing some of the things I described. The clone or part of the human (DNA-soul or spirit) is not in the same place as you from an interdimensional perspective, BUT the harvesting of the clone's(or part's) energy or abuse/prostitution of the clone (or part) can still have an affect on you. The DNA or part of you that was used creates a quantum entanglement. The dreams of sexual abuse and the physically unexplainable bodily phenomena are just the key things a victim may experience if this is happening to them. Either way it became obvious to me that there are clandestine operations and agendas in existence that include (but are not limited to) things like mind control, illegal surveillance, and energetic vampirism in many forms. Here is only one example of a description of these operations. A woman explains here in this video what she saw while visiting one of these underwater cities. She talks about data being collected on every man, woman, and child to be used against them. There are many other testimonies from different people, from different cultures and backgrounds, describing the same things. I encourage you to search for more information on this. I promise you if you look for it, you will find it.

Confession of the Queen of the Coast

The underwater system and 'Government of Satan' is sounding strikingly similar to the shadow government mind control system and surveillance agenda that John Washington describes. The pieces of the puzzle can be hard to configure sometimes according to Dan Duval because there can be many spiritual and ancestral factors affecting an individual situation. Dan reads from this book (The Witch Doctor and The Man- City Under the Sea by Dr. Pat Holliday), and mentions Mammon the god of money and lucre. He also refers to mammon as the spirit of and mentions MAMMON the god of money and power. He also refers to MAMMON as the spirit of gold and as being made of gold - The spirit behind the money of the world. The spirit who controls the money of the world. Dan also reads more from the book describing laboratories, electronics, and other things being made in these underwater cities. John Washington has described the mind control “bathroom god” virtual reality sexual abuse as a planned out and carefully manufactured quantum computer generated system that can allow the use of scalar wave technology to access the vagus nerve center and then ride the energy current down the spine to the sacral chakra to excite the sexual organs in the body and make you dream about having sex or being abused. In reality your life force and sexual energy is actually being stolen by this method and sold. Almost like prostitution. But of clones. Virtual clones of your dna. So when these virtual clones are prostituted in another existence your human life force and/ or sexual energy is being siphoned and sold. Basically our energy circuit connection to source is disconnected while we are sleeping and the life force energy is being funneled to be sold.

Finding What Really Makes the Difference

I continued to watch more of John Washington’s videos. I commented on a few of John Washington’s YouTube videos asking a lot of questions. Then the next morning when I woke up I saw he had posted this:

Arhyas Command Upgrade 4/9/2020 Remote Healing Session for YouTube Correspondence

I honestly had to do a double take when I saw he had my name written on the paper he held up in the video above ^. I saw my name written on the same piece of paper that he wrote his mathematical equation for phase conjugation on. He uses healing codes, his equations, and prayers and explains that he is able to reverse the rotation of particles by 90 degrees and reverse the timeline of abuse. Sound crazy and confusing? Yep. I understand. I had to watch many more of his videos to understand what he did. What I can definitively say is after he did this I did not experience another violent dream attack. I still have not experienced anything abusive in my dreams at all. Neither have I experienced any of the physical manifestations of the attacks. Today is April 30, 2020. I haven’t experienced any traumatic dreams of being sexually abused or traffic since April 9, 2020 when I first saw the above video.

Here are a few more videos that are crucial to watch if you would like to fully understand John Washington’s approach to ending the siphoning of the vital co-creative energy of humanity:

Recommended prayers and teachings from John Washington

I know this was a lot of video links and a ton of information, and I certainly hope it did not seem too overwhelming. I hope this is information that someone else who has been through what I have been through would be eager to listen to. I pretty much only included the videos from John Washington's YouTube channel that I needed to watch before I got a more clear understanding of what was happening. As soon as John did the first remote healing session for me I felt an immediate difference in my energy. I wasn't expecting him to do this at all. I did not pay him or ask him for anything. What this man did, all the way from China has changed my life. The attacks were far less traumatizing. I was still able to see these entities in my my life. The attacks were far less traumatizing. I was still able to see these entities in my dreams, and somehow they were still able to take me to VR Room scenarios. So they were still able to access my energy somewhat, but they weren't able to abuse me or attack me.

John and I began emailing back and forth about a lot of things. He was sending me information and tips as to how I can successfully gain my freedom from this. I showed him the prayers written by Dan Duval that I was using, specifically the 'Freedom From Synthetic Genetics' prayer from his first book. This prayer addresses DNA, clones, contracts(covenants), and many other relative subject matter to what John Washington speaks about on his YouTube channel. So I asked him why he thought the prayers weren't working for me. His response was interesting to me. He said that he has found the most success in remaining self reliant & keeping his heart and desire connected to that of the "true God Source". He said that Jesus would not want us to worship him, but would want us to learn about ourselves and grow in our connection to God Source with co-creativity. John says that what Jesus really taught us, is the teaching of the Inner Christ, which was a sacred science of creation and life. He said that these teachings were deliberately kept from mankind with the purpose of continuing this attack on humanity by simply exploiting us for our lack of knowledge of how the universe really works. It all sounded very 'Christ-Consciousness' like to me. And I dig it for sure. I notice that even though I do feel that Jesus in an energy I have had contact with before, especially once when I was healed, I just don't feel the conviction to spend time focusing on his name like it's a magic charm or something. I have a deep reverence and respect for Jesus. I do believe he was in the flesh and sacrificed. And I do believe that he rose again on the third day. Jesus said "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." (John 14:12) Jesus is the High Priest of the Order of Melchizedek. (One of the prayers John has given me the references the Order of Melchizedek Emerald Order, The Meshaya Collective, and calls upon angels and other heavenly beings.) Working with Jesus myself, and trying the prayers and tips from John Washington, I just felt that there may have been a connection somehow. The Jesus I know would want me to be a student that learns new things, and puts their own creative twists on the methods of others to creatively make it their own. John sent a pdf file of 'The Vow of the Krystar', a pineal induction code, and some prayers to me via email. He instructed how to put up a protective gyrodome around myself, my children, and my home with a mantra. I applied all of these things, and have not had the terrible dream scenarios or attacks. I am sharing these videos and resources he gave me for anyone else who needs to access this information. The videos he used to help me are in the list above. I hope I can help at least one person. John Washington is also planning on putting together information and evidence of the abuse with victim testimonies. If you need help with VR Room abuse/Incubus-Succubus/Water spirits – or any of this stuff I would suggest asking this guy John Washington what he thinks by commenting on his YouTube videos. Or you can email me at socialdragonflytarot27@gmail.com to see if there is a way I can help you.

I'm not sure anyone else I know other than John Washington is even brave enough to speak about their own personal experiences.

I write this for the purpose of transmuting this traumatic part of my life into something useful for someone else's growth and awakening of co-creative power. <3
